

Hughes
Hubbard
& Reed

Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP
One Battery Park Plaza
New York, New York 10004-1482
Office: +1 (212) 837-6000
Fax: +1 (212) 422-4726
hugheshubbard.com

Marc A. Weinstein
Partner
Direct Dial: +1 (212) 837-6460
Direct Fax: +1 (212) 299-6460
marc.weinstein@hugheshubbard.com

November 18, 2019

The Honorable Pamela K. Chen
U.S. District Judge
U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York
225 Cadman Plaza East
Brooklyn, New York 11201

Re: United States v. Juan Ángel Napout (1:15-cr-00252)

Dear Judge Chen:

On behalf of defendants Juan Ángel Napout and Jose Maria Marin we respectfully request that the Court modify the December 19, 2018 restitution payment schedule to defer the next payment date from November 20, 2019 to May 20, 2020. The government consents to this request.

As set forth below, the Court imposed joint and several restitution obligations on Mr. Napout and Mr. Marin, but staggered the payment schedule to: (i) allow for other co-conspirators to be sentenced and to begin making payments towards that restitution amount, and (ii) permit the government time to seek restoration of forfeited funds for restitution purposes. Both Mr. Napout and Mr. Marin made initial restitution payments as required. It is our understanding that the government is in the midst of efforts to seek restoration of funds for restitution.

The Current Restitution Payment Schedule

The Court imposed the following financial penalties as part of sentencing Mr. Napout and Mr. Marin:

- Fines: $1 million (Napout); $1.2 million (Marin);
- Forfeiture: $3,374,025.88 (Napout); $3,335,593 (Marin);
- $356,368.12 in restitution for which Mr. Napout is solely responsible;
- $137,532.60 in restitution for which Mr. Marin is solely responsible;
- $24,001.45 in restitution for which Mr. Napout and Mr. Marin are jointly responsible; and

Honorable Pamela K. Chen
November 18, 2019

2

- $2,116,781.54 in restitution joint and several with all convicted co-conspirators (the “Joint and Several Restitution Amount”).

On December 19, 2018, the Court issued an order setting the following payment schedule:

- February 14, 2019: payment of the fine, forfeiture, and $368,368.85 in restitution (comprising the amount for which Mr. Napout is solely responsible and 50% of the amount for which he is responsible jointly with Mr. Marin);
- May 20, 2019: payment of $250,000 each in restitution;
- November 20, 2019: payment of $250,000 each in restitution;
- May 20, 2020: payment of $250,000 each in restitution; and
- November 20, 2020: payment of 50% each of the remaining restitution balance.

Defendants’ Timely Payments of All Financial Penalties

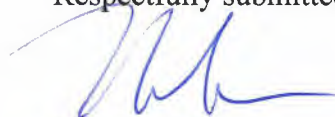

Mr. Napout and Mr. Marin timely made the February 14, 2019 payments, thus fully satisfying their fine and forfeiture obligations, as well as the restitution for which each was solely responsible. In addition, Mr. Napout and Mr. Marin timely made the May 20, 2019 $250,000 payments towards the Joint and Several Restitution Amount. As a result of the payments by Mr. Napout and Mr. Marin, as of May 20, 2019, the Joint and Several Restitution Amount was reduced to $1,616,781.54.

The Court Should Modify The Restitution Payment Schedule

The government has informed us that it is in the process of seeking restoration of forfeited funds for purposes of restitution. In addition, we understand that additional defendants may be sentenced in the coming months.

In light of these developments, Mr. Napout and Mr. Marin request that the Court modify the existing restitution payment schedule by postponing the next restitution payment, currently scheduled for November 20, 2019, to May 20, 2020. As noted at the outset, the government consents to this request. In addition, the government has informed defense counsel that it has contacted the entities to whom the restitution payments are to be made, and those entities consent to the request as well.

Respectfully submitted,

Marc A. Weinstein